Welcome to Seaview! We're so glad you're here today—whether it's your very first visit or you've been walking this journey with us for years, you belong. As we worship together through music, prayer, and Scripture, our hope is that you feel encouraged, inspired, and at home.

At Seaview, we believe church isn't just a building—it's a family. If you're visiting, we'd love to get to know you! Grab a guest card from the welcome table and drop it in the offering plate when it comes around. It's a simple way to say hello and help us stay connected.

Thanks for being here. We're grateful to share this time with you—and we can't wait to see what God has in store today.

— Pastor Mark Larimer

COLLECT EMPTY JARS

❖ Not enough is where God _____.

One day the widow of a member of the group of prophets came to Elisha and cried out, "My husband who served you is dead, and you know how he feared the LORD. But now a creditor has come, threatening to take my two sons as slaves." 2 Kings 4:1 NLT

Elisha replied to her, "How can I help you? Tell me, what do you have in your house?" "Your servant has nothing there at all," she said, "except a small jar of olive oil." 2 Kings 4:2 NIV

➤ Fear doesn't just exaggerate; fear _____.

... "Your servant has nothing there at all," she said, "except a small jar of olive oil." 2 Kings 4:2 NIV

➤ Offer God what you _____ and trust Him to give you what you _____.

Elisha said, "Go around and ask all your neighbors for empty jars. Don't ask for just a few." 2 Kings 4:3 NIV

➤ Sometimes your miracle starts with admitting your _____.

And Elisha said, "Borrow as many empty jars as you can from your friends and neighbors. ⁴Then go into your house with your sons and shut the door behind you. Pour olive oil from your flask into the jars, setting each one aside when it is filled." ⁵So she did as she was told. Her sons kept bringing jars to her, and she filled one after another. ⁶Soon every container was full to the brim! "Bring me another jar," she said to one of her sons. "There aren't any more!" he told her. And then the olive oil stopped flowing. ⁷When she told the man of God what had happened, he said to her, "Now sell the olive oil and pay your debts, and you and your sons can live on what is left over." 2 Kings 4:3-7 NLT

What in your life do you need to _____ so God has room to fill it?
